Welcome Back!

GENESIS: THE BEGINNING

We got a jump on the school year, starting our new Kids' Faith Program cycle in August this year. And where better to start a new year than in the beginning, with Creation. We spent the August learning about the roots of God's love and human sinfulness; the goodness of God's original creation, and the tragedy of human disobedience. Last week we heard the story of Cain's choice to commit violence against his brother Abel. Cain was given the choice to do right, and warned that sin was just waiting to trap him... But Cain still chose to do wrong!

Talk about it!: Eve and Adam believed the snake's lies in the garden and it started a downward spiral for all people. What kind of lies might Cain have been believing when he sinned? Do we ever hear those same lies now?

Happy Birthday!
