"Zacchaeus, hurry and come down..." (Luke 19:5)

JESUS LOVES PEOPLE

This week we met a man named Zacchaeus. Zacchaeus was a tax collector, and had accumulated wealth for himself by overtaxing people. Zacchaeus heard that Jesus was travelling through his town and, being too short to see, Zacchaeus climbed a nearby tree in the hopes of catching a glimpse of Jesus. Jesus walked right up to the tree Zacchaeus was in and called up to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down; for I must stay at your house today." Zacchaeus almost fell out of the tree! He scrambled down and led Jesus to his house, made a bold pronouncement: he was going to give half his possessions to the poor, and pay back four times what he had wrongfully taken. Meeting Jesus had changed Zacchaeus, right down to his heart!

Talk about it: In Kids' Faith we talked about how Zacchaeus had been doing the things that made him happy, After he met Jesus, the wanted to do the things that would make God happy.
