“This is my Son..., with whom I am well pleased.” (Matt 3:17)

WATER AND THE SPIRIT

When the time came for Jesus to start his ministry on earth, he went to his cousin John, at the Jordan river. John responded humbly, how could he be the one to baptize Jesus? Surely Jesus should be the one to baptize John and not the other way around? But Jesus insisted on participating in this outward sign of his inward dedication to following the path God had laid out for him, and completing his mission of salvation for all people. As Jesus rose out of the water, a dove descended on him, and a voice was heard saying, “This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.”

Talk about it: Baptism is an outward sign of our inward covenant to accept Jesus as our Lord and Saviour, and ask for the help of the Holy Spirit to follow the path God has set out for our lives. Though we are only baptized once, we continue to live by the promises we make in baptism for the rest of our lives. How do you feel about making a commitment to follow Jesus?
