“I do not know how to speak, for I am only a boy.” (Jer. 1:6)

TOO YOUNG?

We often think important people have to be grown ups; kids can't make important social and political decisions, they can even vote! But God shows all the time in the Word that God can use anyone, at any age. Think of Samuel, called when he was just a boy. Jeremiah also thought he was too young to serve as God's messenger, but God knew better. God had chosen Jeremiah, and God would be with Jeremiah, making sure Jeremiah had everything he needed to fulfill God's calling. Eventually, God even chose to come to earth as the smallest human he could: a tiny newborn baby.

Talk about it! Have you ever felt too small to fulfill God's calling for you? What can we think about when we worry that we aren't "enough" for God?
