Inspiration for Your Calling
30 DAY DEVOTIONAL

M O R G A N T R A C Y J A M E S

Get Up

Hey, get up! Wake from your slumber and realize the day will quickly pass away with all of its beauty left in your past memories. Don't allow the days to slip from your fingers without attacking the mission God has for you. Each task will vary, but no matter how intricate or simple your mission today, do it to the best of your ability in love and eagerness. Awake, Run, and Rise while today is still today.

Heb. 3:13

Am I good enough?

Can I really do all that God has called me to do? These questions start to plague our minds when walking in our destiny. This is the way fear creeps in and holds us captive until we get the courage to press through. Courage doesn't come easily, it comes from prayer. Praying over your fear allows the fear to be converted to courage. Are you fearful today? "Courage is only fear that has been prayed over"

– unknown

Col. 3:23

Step Up

Being set apart isn't always fun or beautiful, it can result in being the weird one or the odd one or the one that just doesn't fit in and worst, ostracized. Don't see it all as negative. Do you feel lonely or like you have no friends? That's okay, God is using this to bless you and protect you. Not being accepted by others teaches you to accept yourself and know that Christ has already accepted all of you. Today take time to see how being set apart has actually blessed you and protected you.

Jer. 1:5

Shaky Ground

When we step into unfamiliar territory our fear and doubt can begin to overtake us. The new ground we are standing on can get very shaky due to our unbelief.

Walking in our destiny will call us to many unknown places while putting all of our trust in God. Walking in the unknown can cause us to feel alone or without clarity, but have peace in knowing that God is with you, helping you and guiding you every step of the way. The shaky ground you are on is actually holy ground.

Act. 7:33

I Trust You Lord

Trusting in the Lord will bring you an inner peace when all hell has broken loose in your life. Financial struggles, failures, and hardships can show up, and your response must be "I trust you, Lord". Find fulfillment in knowing that Lord is leading you into a more intimate relationship with Him. This will bless you beyond your wildest dreams.

Heb. 10:10

Provision

Having the faith to know that God has already made provision for you can be challenging when life knocks you down and when no one else believes in your vision. Pursuing your destiny you must have faith. The provision is preparation beforehand. Have an inner faith to know that God has already prepared all you need before you even embarked on this journey. Provision is knowing that no matter the struggles that come your way, God has already provided your essential needs.

Psa. 23:1

Wrapped in Love

The love of God will hold us, equip us, and sustain us in our lowest moments. Pursuing your destiny comes with many broken pieces that God is strategically repairing. We must be patient with ourselves while we are growing and getting prepared for all God has for us. When moments of disbelief attack our minds we must be willing to revert back to the love of God that we are beautifully wrapped in.

Col. 3:14

8

Do Big

Do Big with what you have.

When our destiny takes longer than we would like, we get impatient. Wondering if what we thought was wrong. Was the vision false? Am I crazy to believe in this? We will quickly revert to doubting instead of looking at what God has already blessed us with to help bring the vision to life today. Do big with whatever God has given you. Don't wait until you get more help or resources. Do your part and God will beautifully do His.

Phil. 4:19

Much Given

To whom much is given much is required. The more we get the more is required of us. God gives us financial blessings, multiple gifts, and talents. Somehow we misuse and mismanage what we already have been given. The better we manage the more of an increase we see. Look today at what you have been graciously given and see how you can manage your time, finances, and resources better.

Lk. 12:48

Time Alone

As a creative savvy woman pursuing her destiny you must find time alone. Time to get back to the basics with God. Spending time in intimate prayer, Bible reading, and worship will help you gain clarity and peace. Seeking God in the alone moments helps you to regain the vision, find inner strength, and go harder for what is yours.

Lk. 5:16

11

Mind Running

Are you aware of how much your mind runs? Are you even catching half of the new ideas and remarkable insight that passes through your mind daily?

Probably not. We are the temple of the Lord and He speaks to us in this temple.

However, we miss it due to our busy schedules and busy minds. Pursuing your destiny you must stop all seizing and grab a pen, a journal, and write down all the things you've been missing. Writing down ideas and revelations will help you in moving further in your destiny.

Mt. 11:15

12

Meditate

Meditation is to ponder or reflect. We as visionary women must meditate on scripture, goals, and visions. When we meditate we began to see the once blurry vision a lot clearer. We find an inner peace that only God can give and rejuvenation for the tasks and challenges ahead. Taking the time to meditate on fears and afflictions allows us to see the truth of God. This heals us while moving us closer to being the women to fulfill our destiny.

Josh. 1:8

13

Making Time

Making time for your calling is a must. No matter how big or small, consistency is the goal, not perfection. We will all fall short, but through our consistency, we will build discipline. Discipline comes off as a harsh word, but you can't be a disciple without discipline. Choosing to be disciplined in making time for God and your dreams will allow you to see an increase in everything including your faith. Make time each day to work towards your walk with God and your dreams.

Ecccl. 3:1

14

Drive

Our fire can start out so strong and then somewhere, somehow, it goes out. Not knowing how to get the fire back we can easily fall off with our desires, hopes, and walk with God. Being disciplined allows us to keep going even when there is no fire or feelings. To keep striving even when God is silent or the vision is no longer apparent. To Keep your drive even after all the fun butterfly bubbly feelings go away. You will quickly see how the fire is meant to start you while the drive is meant to keep you.

15

Energy

While pursuing your dreams you may feel like your energy is depleted, negative, or just all over the place. This can be a sign of overdoing it and not taking the needed time for you. Our destiny will become our daily life, but never forget to take a walk, smell flowers, laugh and most of all love. Pursue your passion, but never forget to share that beautiful love, fire, and energy with others.

Phil. 2:13

16

Inspire

True Inspiration comes from God. He allows us to get inspired by our unique characteristics. When we are without drive we lack in inspiration. Our lack of inspiration will cause us to put down our dreams and get busy on other things. When you lack inspiration everything else lacks also. Today, find new ways to get inspired through God, friends, videos, books, girl time or whatever else gets you back right. Staying inspired is what will give you a new fire and drive for your destiny.

17

Vintage

Older things inspire me like vintage style. The unique idea of using something older today and making it valuable brings me fulfillment. That's the way God uses us. He uses those old ideas, old personalities, and many things we thought was no longer needed, to help blossom us into the women that we are meant to be. What have you deemed older and no longer needed in your life that God wants to use for your benefit?

2 Cor. 5:17

18

Faithful With One

Many days we desire more. More money, more followers, more help, more more more. When we keep striving for more and more, we overlook the few we do have. Being faithful with what we do have allows us to gain discipline and consistency which will lead to more. If you can be faithful with little then you can be faithful with much. Choose today to be faithful, alert, and workable with the few you have.

Lk. 16:10

Big White Light

The big white light shows all your darkness. All the things you wanted to hide from people. The thoughts, insecurities, and secret sins. This big white light will shine in our lives and reveal all of our past hurt. It is up to us as women seeking God to not run from it, but embrace it. This is meant to reveal to you the truth of yourself, which reveals the truth of God. This is Gods way of delivering you further into your calling.

Jn. 8:32

20

Excess Baggage

Going on a plane ride anything over 50 pounds you will get added an extra charge from the airline for holding additional weight. Each day we hold additional weight and we get charged by feeling drained, exhausted, lost, confused, and hurt. Our excess baggage will weigh us down while charging new prices each day. Compromising morals and running from God will be it's biggest charges. Look in your life today to remove the excess baggage and charges that are being made in your life daily.

21

Examine Yourself

Going deeper in your destiny starts with a better you. You must search yourself to see the patterns and habits in your life that are holding you back. Each of us must examine our lives in all areas as finances, time, and media. As women pursuing our passion we must know better, to do better. Taking time to examine yourself allows you to take the necessary steps to improve you.

2 Cor. 13:5

22

Time

This precious gift that we all overlook and give away too easily. We must see this time is a precious gift that we will never get back. This time is ours and it is up to us how we use it. Do we lay in bed all day griping and moaning about our life or do we get up daily giving time to God and our passions? Choose wisely how you spend your time, you can never get it back.

Job. 14:5

Sow & Reap

Today, walk in love and sow good things with your time. Your mind is a garden and each second you are sowing more and more seeds. Have the awareness to monitor what you are sowing in your mind. Women seeking their destiny protect their garden, if not, doubt, fear, and distractions can sneak in. Take time to intentionally sow things of goodness, hope, and love.

Gal. 6:7

24

Cultivate

When we sow into our garden we then must cultivate our land. Sowing seeds of goodness allows God to work within us through the Holy Spirit to prepare and develop the land. We have been given our gifts, but it is up to us to prepare and develop them. Today acknowledge the seeds of gifts you have been given and look to see how you can better prepare and develop your gifts to be used by God.

Mat. 13:3

25

Allow God

Opening up our hearts to God and developing our gifts gives God an open invitation to use us for His Glory. We are to not force and beg, but allow the dwellings of the Holy Spirit to work within us. Allow God to use you today, by being available in all areas of your life for the equipping of others.

Psa. 46:10

26

Work

Faith without works is dead right? Well, many know this, but get handicapped by fear of “is this right?” that we never move.

We must put our faith in motion by our works. Our inner belief must be stronger than our fears. When we believe more than we fear, we then, start to do. If God has given you an idea or vision, but fear is holding you back, spend time building up your faith so that you can begin to move forward in God.

2 Tim. 1:7

27

Eyes May Fail

Throughout your journey your natural sight will tell you to give up, it's not working, or press the retreat button and go back to what is comfortable. However, we are told to not live by sight, but by faith. We must choose to open our spiritual eyes and believe in Gods word. We must be able to see with our eyes closed. See all that God has already shown you. See all that God has brought you through and see that the Lord is good.

2 Cor. 5:7

28

Write the Vision

Expect God for great and mighty things. He has opened himself up to us in such a way that we can lean upon his words and visions. Expect God to bring every idea, and vision to pass. Believe audaciously that He can and will do it. Although, it may take a while or seem like it will never come, never stop believing for restoration, healing, or deliverance. Our faith in God impacts the lives of others.

Hab. 2:2

29

Not About You

We all get caught up in ourselves. Our hurts, feelings, and thoughts while keeping others last. We must know that Jesus Christ came for us. Each gift and talent from God is gifted to equip and empower others. When we use our gifts for others we find an inner fulfillment that only God can give. Today, take time to see new ways to use your gifts to help the lives of others.

Jam. 1:17

30

Fulfillment

When operating in your calling you find an inner peace and fulfillment that only God can give. You are willing to do long hours with no compensation. You receive joy and inspiration by the thought of it and it makes your days sweeter. Walking in your destiny brings a fire for life and a vision that challenges you and awakens you. Although, this is a lifelong journey stay faithful, strong, eager, and loving. This walk is all about you finding the thing that not only changes your life, but the life of others.

Psa. 103:5

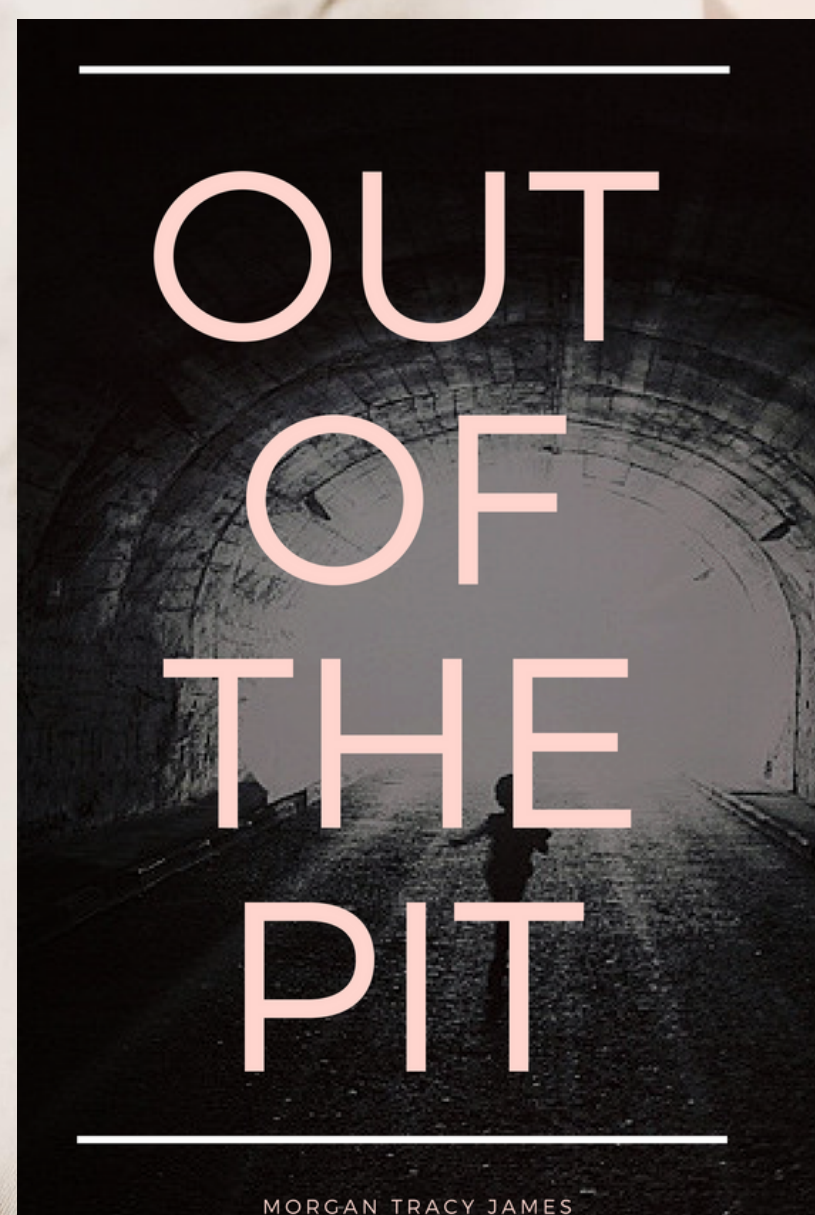

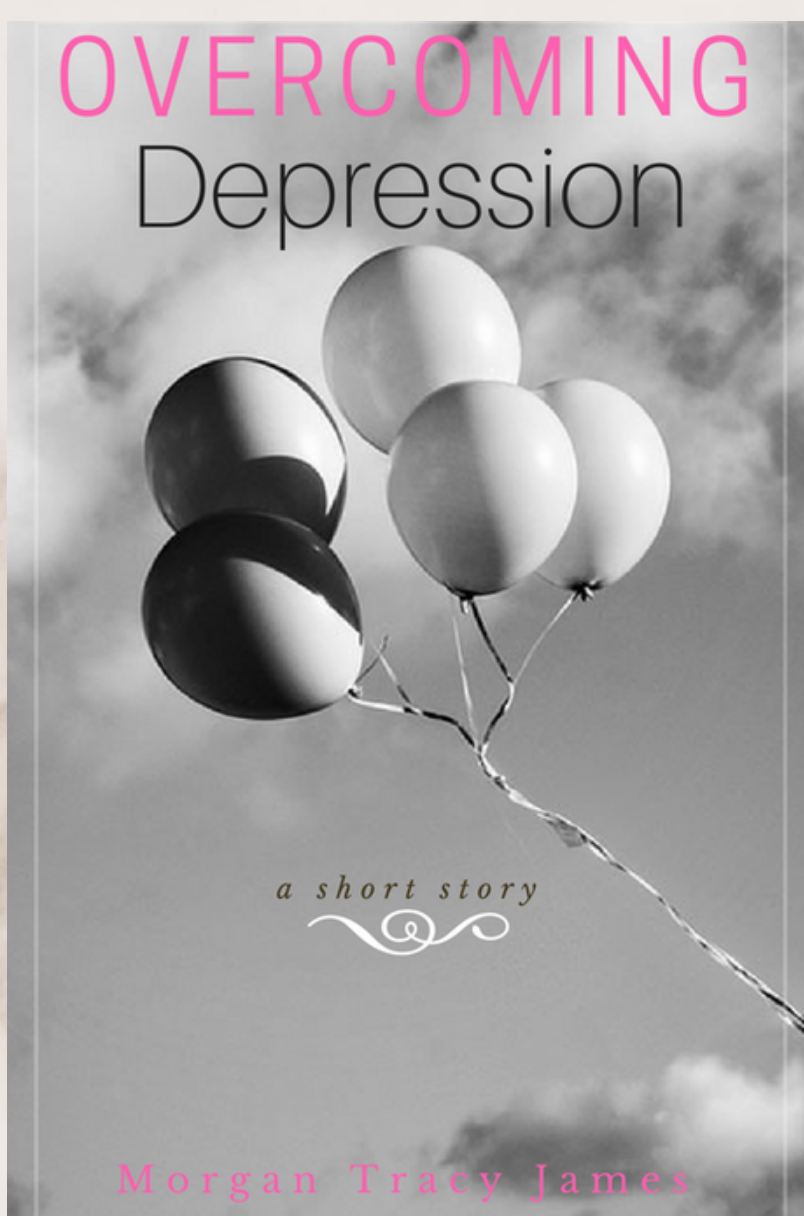

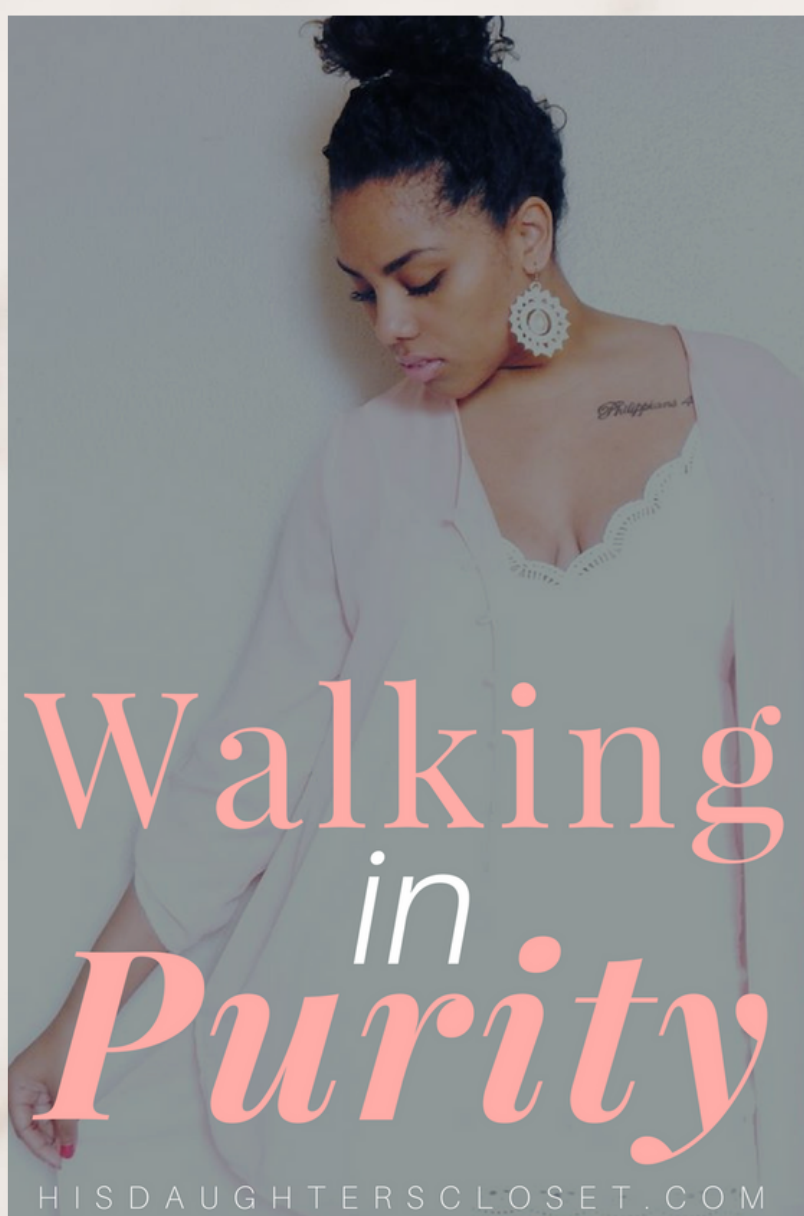

A woman with dark, curly hair and large, ornate earrings is smiling. She is wearing a light pink, long-sleeved top. The background is a soft, warm tone. Overlaid on the image is a quote in a white, cursive font.

"When operating in your calling, you find an inner peace and fulfillment that only God can give."
