

Manuscript Submission Guidelines for Southern Owl Publications

Submission Guidelines:

We strive to make Southern Owl a publishing house which offers quality books in multiple genres. Our authors will receive above and beyond support and service. We specialize in eBook sales, but we also offer print books. Southern Owl is always looking for talented authors to join our team.

We are always open to new submissions and we also consider reprints if you have exclusive rights. We also welcome previously self-published work.

Approximate response time to submission: Current response time is several weeks.

NOTE: We charge an initial promotional fee of $75.00, then a monthly fee of $81.24 for four months after which ends up being a total of $400.00 for promotions that will remain in effect for one year and continue so long as you continue to use our services. Please be sure you understand that this fee is to promote your book once it has been published by us. To see all we do to promote your book please go to the website: southernowlpublications.net and click on promotional services provided.

We are currently seeking books with a story length 30,000 words or greater. Shorter books will be considered if they are part of a series or can be connected to another short work. We strive to combine related works under one cover to maximize price and promoting advantages. Exceptions include: comic books.

No submission will be accepted that demeans an individual or a group of people.

Taboos include:

1. Incest
2. Pedophilia
3. Necrophilia
