

SWIM TEST CRITERIA

The child must swim two widths of the pool with their face in the water using arm and leg action without stopping or pausing movement during the entire swim. The child must demonstrate this to the Lifeguard on duty who will make the final decision on the child's ability.