

Making Art Happen

Contemporary Art + Technology Summer Camps

July /August 2017
9 - 4pm
for Kids 6 to 13

Day 1
Environmental issues
and Art

Artist > Maria Arceo & Thames Plastic Project.

We will explore our immediate environment through the plastic rubbish, touching on consumerist behaviour. We will transform the plastic found in imaginative sculptures.

Day 2
Digital identity and Art

Artist > Javier Chozas &
Digital Time, Narcissus.

What is a digital footprint? How do we create a digital identity? We will create our real life characters to project some of the most common behaviour seen in social media.

Day 3
The everyday Object as Art

Artist > Oscar Diaz &
Materialising Ideas

We will materialise ideas through the basic design philosophy. We will construct personalised and distinctive everyday objects.

Day 4
Cultural Identity and Art

Artist > Isabel Castro
Jung & 8x8 Project.

London is one of the most multicultural cities on earth in which more than 270 nationalities live together. We will explore and share our cultural identities in order to blend all cultures together..

Day 5
Interactive Art Exhibition

ubiquotechs & Rafael Gerardo Weisz

We use technologies in our daily live, why not using some of the latest technologies to organise an interactive exhibition? All the work created by the participants throughout the week will be curated and exhibited in the most unusual way.

About us

Exprimto Limon is a non profit organisation founded in 2007 in Madrid. We started in London in 2013 with the name Making Art Happen.

The educational programme will be lead by renowned Spanish contemporary artists.

Supported by:

 Trànsit Projectes

U*ubiquo techs

We live in a moment in which the visual language is an important part of our everyday. We need tools and instruments in order to read, to generate and to decode the images around us.

This project proposes a wider understanding and acknowledgment on visual language through contemporary art.
