MCW PRO WRESTLING · SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 2016

Waldorf, MD - On Friday, November 11, MCW Pro Wrestling action hit the Unique Sports Academy in Waldorf, MD for the “Autumn Armageddon Tour”.

On Facebook Live at facebook.com/MCWProWrestling:

Chuck Lennox pinned Malcolm Moses.

Dante Caballero pinned Drake Carter after hitting Carter with Lavoe's Line.

On the main card for the evening:

WWE Hall of Famer Kevin Nash addressed the crowd, thanking them for coming and urging for all of us to work together for the future.

In a three-way dance, The Hell Cats defeat The Appalachian Outlaws and Rock 'N Bowl Express.

After trying to run away from her match with Brittany Blake, Maria Manic was counted out. That prompted General Manager Phil Stamper to order Manic back to the ring and compete or she would be fired. Manic tried every dirty trick in the book, but it was Blake who scored the victory.

Brandon Scott defeated Jeremiah in an exciting match up.

MCW Tag Team champions The Ecktourage w/ Kevin Eck retained over Bruiser and Rayo, who had some help from Sean Studd, who distracted Bruiser, causing him to leave the ring and chase Studd to the back. Rayo was injured in the match - more information to come as it is available.

Mack Butler and Isaiah Frazier defeated Money Green and J-Sin, taking advantage of Green and Sin seemingly not working well or agreeing with each other.

MCW Rage TV champion Ken Dixon retained over Shaun Cannon in a high-intensity match-up.

The Dixon Line, Joe Keyes and Rob Locke, defeated Jason Kincaid and Lio Rush.

In a Waldorf Street Fight, where anything goes, for the MCW Pro Wrestling Heavyweight Title, champion Drolix retained over Sean Studd, despite interference from Ken Dixon, The Dixon Line, Bruiser, Jason Kincaid, and Lio Rush.

Afterwards, Bruiser led the crowd in singing "Happy Birthday" to Lio Rush.
