

Results from April 22, 2017

“Spring Fever”

MCW PRO WRESTLING · SUNDAY, APRIL 23, 2017

MCW Pro Wrestling returns for a night of action with "Spring Fever" on Saturday, April 22 that included a special appearance from Rey Mysterio!

In a Facebook LIVE exclusive (<https://www.facebook.com/MCWProWres...>):

- The Punk Rock All Star's Shaun Cannon pinned F.U.'s George Jenkins with a school boy. But G-Fed attacked Cannon after the match until Shaun was saved by his partner Drake Carter.

- Kennadi Brink was a surprise entrant by General Manager Phil Stamper after Renee Michelle and Sahara Seven did not want to face off in front of the Joppa crowd. The returning Brink was victorious in the three-way dance.

On the live event:

- After some words in the back from Ken Dixon and The Dixon Line on Facebook Live (<https://www.facebook.com/MCWProWres...>), Ken Dixon called out Ryan McBride. But McBride was able to get the surprise on Dixon, but before McBride could hit his finish, Dixon escaped to the back.

- To declare new #1 contenders to the MCW Pro Wrestling Tag Team Titles, The Dixon Line (Joe Keys and Rob Locke) defeated The Rock 'N Bowl Express (Stryker Lane and Thick Vic) w/ "Mr. 300" Nick Jeremy and The Appalachian Outlaws (Bo Nekoda and the returning Oakley Woods) w/ J.P. Callahan.

- In a No DQ Match, Marcellus Prime defeated Napalm Bomb after a spine buster into a metal trash can. But Napalm defied the loss and made it clear, staring down his former friend, that their rivalry is not over.

- For the Rage TV Title, champion Danta Caballero retained over WrestlePro's Chris Payne, Chuck Lennox, Brandon Scott, and Greg Excellent. Before the match, Excellent helped himself to Dante's bar selection, adding in some of his own Mountain Dew. Towards the end of the match, Excellent looked like he was pulling off a victory, until Alice, an associate of Maxwell Jacob Feinstein, came to the ring and sprayed hairspray into Greg's eyes. Greg had some words on Facebook Live after the match (<https://www.facebook.com/MCWProWres...>).
- Lio Rush and Flip Gordon had an amazing back-and-forth independent dream match, until Rush pulled out an amazing victory with The Rush Hour (Spanish Fly).
- Rey Mysterio came to the ring to address the MCW crowd, but was interrupted by The Appalachian Outlaws, until Lio Rush and Flip Gordon got involved (See it all at <https://www.facebook.com/MCWProWres...> and what The Appalachian Outlaws had to say afterwards at <https://www.facebook.com/MCWProWres...>).
- The Hell Cats (Jimmy Starz and Sexy Steve) beat The Winner Circle (Rayo and Jeremiah) w/ Andy Vineberg after Sean Studd got involved in the match, who was run off by Bruiser. See what Vineberg has to say after the match (<https://www.facebook.com/MCWProWres...>).
- Ken Dixon and Ryan McBride had a hard-fought battle against each other, with Dixon walking out the victor. After the match, McBride apologized to the crowd for not winning.
- With the MCW Tag Team Titles vacated with The Hardy Boys now in WWE, new champions were named as #1 contenders Guns 4 Hire (Paul Jordane and Bill Collier) defeated The Ecktourage (Dirty Money and Eric Chapel) w/ Kevin Eck.
- For the MCW championship, the champion Sean Studd and Bruiser had a hard-fought match. Despite multiple interjections...and removals of The Winners Circle...and knocks out of referees, Andy Vineberg returned to the ring in an MCW official's shirt, until stunned by the referee. Tara came out to give the title to Bruiser, but gave him a low blow from behind, giving Studd the advantage to choke slam Bruiser for the pin to retain the title.

MCW returns Friday, June 9 at the MCW Arena, 1000 Joppa Farm RD, Joppa, MD for "Slamboree", sponsored by Jimmy's Famous Seafood! More information coming soon!