  - Travis "Flip" Gordon defeated Facade and "LSG" Leon St. Giovanni.
  - Joe Keys got the pin as him and Rob Locke faced Brandon Scott and Sean Carr.
- After the match, Carr attacked Brandon Scott.
- Tommaso Ciampa pinned Jason Kincaid.

Jason Kincaid then won a last chance Battle Royal to enter the Shamrock Cup finale over Lennox, Facade, LSG, Scott, Carr, and Locke.

Non-Shamrock Cup action:

In a street fight, the Assistant to the General Manager, Olivia Stone, ended the match when F.U. handcuffed Jimmy Starz to the ropes and threatened to beat him with a chair. F.U. then threatened Ms. Stone to raise their hand, saying they defeated The Hell Cats. Once she did, Chris Swann handcuffed Ms. Stone's wrist to the top turnbuckle. "Ramblin'" Rich Myers, who was at ringside, jumped in the ring to stop F.U., but found himself outnumbered. And just when Ms. Stone was handcuffed and alone, Swann went to hit her again, like he did months ago, but instead feigned a punch and walked away.

After the match, in a Facebook Live video, General Manager Phil Stamper approved "Ramblin" Rich's request to have The Holy Rollers reunite to face F.U.!

Andy Vineberg then talked with The Rock and Bowl Express about what they have in store for MCW.

For the MCW Women's Title, with surprise guest referee Maria Manic, champion Brittany Blake retained over the returning Kennadi Brink.

In a gauntlet match for the MCW Tag Team championship, The Ecktourage (Dirty Money and Eric Chapel) with Kevin Eck regained their title, after an assist from Guns 4 Hire (Paul Jordane and Bill Collier), defeating champions The Punk Rock All-Stars, Bruiser and Rayo, Black Wall Street's Napalm and Solo, Guns 4 Hire, Bo Nekoda and Cousin Clay, and the surprise entrants of MCW Rage TV champion Ken Dixon and Rob Locke.

MCW Heavyweight champion King McBride retained over Black Wall Street's Drolix after an assist from Ken Dixon.

In the Shamrock Cup finale, Lio Rush became the first person to win back-to-back Shamrock Cups, defeating Ciampa, Dutt, Gordon, Keys, and Kincaid.
