

Thursday/Friday 8:30-4:30 10:00-10:15 break / 11:45-1:00 lunch / 2:30-2:45 break /

1. Trauma-Focused Cognitive Behavioral Therapy for Children and Families (Advanced - MH)
*Anthony Mannarino, PhD

Thursday

8:30-10:00 how this model differs from other in the treatment of children and adolescents

10:00-10:15 break

10:15-11:45 current empirical literature on the use of this model for children, adolescents, and families exposed to traumatic events

11:45-1:15 lunch

1:15-2:45 the effects of multiple forms of psychological trauma on children and adolescents

2:45-3:00 break

3:00-4:30 assessment strategies for determining the appropriateness of Trauma-Focused CBT

Friday

8:30-10:00 the practice components of Trauma-Focused CBT

10:00-10:15 break

10:15-11:45 the clinical benefits of providing integrative treatment for complex trauma

11:45-1:15 lunch

1:15-2:45 the use of Trauma-Focused CBT with individuals and with the family unit

2:45-3:00 break

3:00-4:30 cultural considerations when employment Trauma-Focused CBT; the diverse implementation strategies for TF-CBT; outcome measurements for this model