

Casa Vesta

A LUXURY BOUTIQUE COUNTRY HOUSE
FOR EXCLUSIVE RURAL TOURISM

Hotel Casa Vesta is a charming boutique country house located in Zufre, a picturesque town of declared Cultural Interest belonging to the Natural Park Sierra de Aracena and Picos de Aroche, and a part of the Ruta del Jamon. Its privileged location enjoys unlimited views over green hills, forests, the river Ribera de Huelva and the lake of Zufre, Andalusia. This exclusive adult only hotel serves clientele seeking peace, tranquility, relaxation, intimacy and complete disconnection in luxurious surroundings. Casa Vesta has 6 elegant double rooms and 2 Junior Suites decorated with exquisite furnishings offering the highest levels in comfort. In addition the Junior Suites have whirlpool tubs, a separate shower cabin and offer a large private terrace with sunbeds overlooking panoramic views. Guests can enjoy each and every area of the house: the large and comfortable living room with open fire, the billiard pool room, the library, the music room with piano, the porch with seating for 50 guests, and the fitness area. Relax on a Balinese bed by the large terraced outdoor infinity pool with stunning mountain views. The dining room offers equal views through large open archways. Casa Vesta is the ideal venue to host all kinds of events, workshops or celebrations. Besides cozy and sumptuous living and entertainment areas, landscaped gardens, porches and various terraces around the house, it also has a large ballroom accommodating up to 350 people with excellent catering services. The hotel makes a wonderfully romantic setting for your perfect wedding day. Casa Vesta are also happy to organise excursions for you such as a visit to one of the ham producers, or to one of the best bullfighting breeding farms, to a horse breed with the noble and elegant Andalusian horses or a guided visit to an ecological cottage with 100% ecological products and meat.
