

Parador de Carmona - Alcazar del Rey Don Pedro

TRANSPORT YOURSELF BACK IN TIME STAYING IN A 14TH CENTURY FORTRESS

The Parador de Carmona, Alcázar del Rey Don Pedro, is located 30km from Seville, in the town's historic district of Carmona. It offers beauty, tranquility, exquisite cuisine and lovely scenery.

The building is built over the ruins of a stunning 14th century Arab fortress standing high above the town. A wonderful example of Moorish architecture, the Parador de Carmona boasts fabulous design details including a stunning central courtyard, vaulted ceilings, original stonework and spacious terraces with views of the countryside. Admire the Mudéjar fountain, take a stroll through the pretty gardens and enjoy a quiet read or sit down under the arched galleries and pleasant lounges. Transport yourself back in time and imagine the fortress history through battles and different civilisations that have shaped this region of Spain. The large bright bedrooms of the Parador de Carmona enjoy exquisite classic décor which, alongside the Sevillian tiling, enhance its citadels original features. Spaces are filled with tapestries and antique furniture which is completely in harmony with the buildings history. The dining room is located in the former refectory and is one of the most spectacular in the Paradores chain. Decorative elements such as the tilework will remind you that you are in the land of Andalusia. The Parador's restaurant, serving traditional cuisine, offers lovely views of the fabulous swimming pool and the surrounding valleys and the Corbones river. The menu features a combination of delicious regional dishes and seasonal items. Carmona-style spinach with locally harvested chickpeas, small game dishes including wild partridge and rabbit, and local desserts such as citron cake. Many different past cultures found Carmona to be an ideal spot to settle, leaving behind traces that still remain today. Must-see sights include the Puerta de Sevilla (Seville Gate); the Roman necropolis, evidence of a magnificent past; and the Museum of the City of Carmona, which provides a journey through the town's history. It is only within a half hour drive to Seville, making it the perfect location for day trips to the enchanting city.
