

Hotel Palacio de Villapanes

WHEN ART AND LUXURY BECOME A PLEASURE

Hotel Palacio de Villapanes is situated just outside Seville's historic Santa Cruz district, just 350 metres from the Casa de Pilatos, and a 15 minute walk from the Cathedral and the Alcazar palace. A former 18th Century stone Palace, it has been masterfully restored maintaining the marble columns, iron gates and vaulted ceilings, whilst modernising with all the latest technologies. Built in typical Andalusian style with a fountain courtyard and balconies, the 5 star hotel has 50 rooms including 6 luxury suites, majestic and elegant with high ceilings and windows, 18th Century architectural details and high tech gadgets. Suite Maestro is a symbol of luxury, history and culture of an Andalusian Palace, highlighted by its splendid marble fireplace and two columns which separate the bedroom from the exclusive lounge. Suite Torreón, in the dome of the hotel, has a vaulted wooden ceiling and huge windows, a marble bathtub from the 19th century, and exceptional views over La Giralda and the Cathedral from the private terrace. Discover the selected mediterranean gastronomy in Restaurant Los Rincones del Marqués. Taste the Andalusian flavours in the old winery of the Palace, a restaurant with an excellent Sevillian gastronomy with a very good wine selection. The hotel also features a garden terrace where you can enjoy traditional tapas. Take time to relax in the wellness area and solárium terrace with its refreshing plunge pool. The Hotel Palacio de Villapanes is a dream paradise, a place with such a special charm you will never wish to depart.
