

Relais & Châteaux - Hotel El Castell de Ciutat

EXPERIENCE NATURE AND MEDITERRANEAN CUISINE IN THE PYRENEES

Located on a hill overlooking the town of La Seu d'Urgell, with the Cadí mountain range as a spectacular backdrop, El Castell de Ciutat faces a landscape of preserved natural beauty. The Tàpies family provides a warm welcome in this mountain chalet, located at the foot of a fortress dating back to the 11th century. There are breathtaking views of The Urgellet Valley and Cadí-Moixeró, Catalonia's biggest natural reserve, from all the rooms, all decorated in a typical mountain style. The Castle Suite, located 300 meters away from the main hotel building has a unique identity: antique furniture, stone fireplace and a large bathroom with a hot tube. An exquisite Mediterranean cuisine is served in the main restaurant Tàpies, the signature Restaurant of El Castell, since its opening a reference in the region; it has welcomed at its tables both national and international celebrities, always with a heart-felt cuisine and a service of excellence. Nowadays its flames are under Chef Salvador Trabalón's command; his creations are phocused in the product itself, 60% out of which comes from this region. He has created a short and varied menu to please everybody's palates. The Katia Restaurant is a cozy place with a terrace and views of the Urgellet

Valley; it has a fabulous open kitchen where clients may watch the chef as he prepares a variety of dishes. It offers a typical traditional and regional cuisine with the best products from the local market every day. Under Chef Oscar Solé's care, it offers a large and varied menu with dishes to share such as salads, rice's, meats and fishes, sandwiches and delicious desserts. Both Restaurants are paired with an excellent wine cellar offering more than 450 labels, local, Spanish and from around the world: Vega Sicilia Único Gran Reserva 1975, Romanée-Conti Grand Cru 1994, Château Petrus 2002, Albariño Gran Veigadares 2006, Château D'yquem 1989, Dom Perignon Oenothèque Vintage 1962. The main Bar offers a large collection of whiskeys, cognacs, armagnacs and gins. The Wellness Club offers a wide range of beauty treatments, spectacular indoor and outdoor swimming pools, a gym, a sauna, a steam room and a Jacuzzi. The Relais & Châteaux - Hotel El Castell de Ciutat is an ideal setting to live an authentic Pyrenean experience.
