

Villa Spalletti Trivelli

A LUXURY BOUTIQUE HOTEL PERFECTLY PLACED
TO EXPERIENCE THE ETERNAL CITY

Villa Spalletti Trivelli is an opulent 20th century city retreat overlooking splendid Italian gardens, formerly an aristocratic home, now one of the most original and exclusive residences in Rome. The rare elegance of the furnishings, impeccable service, and modern comforts create a truly charming atmosphere, satisfying the expectations of guests who enjoy preferential treatment complemented by privacy and discretion. Located on the highest of the Seven Hills of Rome, Quirinale, it is only a few steps away from the Piazza del Quirinale, the official residence of Italy's President, and the spectacular Trevi Fountain. The Villa Borghese is within easy walking distance. Accommodation is characterised by a balance of classic antique with contemporary comfort, displayed throughout the 12 guest rooms and 2 garden suites, each featuring huge light absorbing windows, a luxurious marble bathroom with shower and tub as well as a refined line of courtesy organic bath products. Public areas are large and airy, showcasing valued antiques, whilst the library, which holds the original book collection of Count Spalletti Trivelli is recognised by the Ministry of National Heritage and Culture. The library may also be used as an exclusive meeting room. The drawing room features an honesty bar or take afternoon tea in Sala del Camino. The Papier Peint dining room offers an elegant dining experience in an intimate and tranquil setting. The delicious menu draws from centuries of Italy's gastronomic heritage and is complemented by an excellent selection of wines from around the world. The hotel's magnificent rooftop offers sanctuary throughout the day and into the evening. Complete with shaded sofas and loungers, the complimentary bar and Jacuzzis provide the perfect spot for an afternoon of rest and relaxation accompanied by soft, soothing music. The terrace menu draws heavily from local Italian tradition, offering simple yet delicious selection of salads using own produced organic Pomario olive oil, freshly baked breads and homemade ice-creams. Villa Spalletti Trivelli also have a spacious and elegant wellness centre with tepidarium, steam room and a relaxation room. A fully equipped fitness area is open 24-hours a day, with a personal trainer available on request.
