Procedures/Activities

1. Explain to the kids the basics of starting an interview.
   a. Always have questions written down beforehand.
   b. Always ask the subject to spell their name.
   c. Be polite and ask easier questions at the beginning.
2. Explain the concept of an open ended question, and give some examples.
3. Have the class break up into pairs for the activity.
   a. Give 5 minutes to write down questions they want to ask their classmate.
   b. Give time for them to take turns asking questions.
   c. Have the kids share what they learned about their classmate aloud.