

VISION HORSE

Discovery and Transformation In The Field

Is there a goal you've been working toward that remains stubbornly out of reach?

A career change, a health goal or perhaps simply finding more peace and space within an already full life?

The Vision Horse calls you to draw upon all of your senses, to break free from limits of belief, experience and even fear in order to move beyond your previously established thresholds.

This is an opportunity to un-fix your identity! To evaluate the places in which your vision has become stuck, then do the heart work required to embody a new form.

Are you ready for TransFORMATION?
It awaits you in the field!

Facilitated by World Renowned Artist - Kim McElroy
& Transformation Catalyst - Sandra Wallin, MA

In this program you will receive:

- Guidance from Master Horse and Human Facilitators to help you identify and integrate your primary personal or professional goal
- A personalized painting by Kim McElroy showing her artful interpretation of your Visioning Session with Sandra and the Herd
- An overview of how the mind creates coherence between your beliefs and your reality
- Transformation of the dominant belief barrier that is keeping you stuck
- Simple grounding practices for times of overwhelm and stress
- A follow-up group coaching call to support the integration and embodiment of your goal

Dates: June 29, 2019

Investment: $1500 US/Spring Special: $750 US when registered by June 1

Includes catered lunches, an original work of art created for each participant by Kim McElroy, laser focused discovery sessions with Sandra and the Herd, an intimate class size of 6 to maximize your learning and integration.

Location: Chiron's Way in Maple Ridge, BC – 45 minutes east of Vancouver

To register email Sandra at info@chironsway.com or go to chironsway.com