PROFESSIONAL LEARNING DESCRIPTIONS

Dr. Debbie Silver, Keynote Speaker 1

GENERAL SESSION: DRUMMING TO THE BEAT OF DIFFERENT MARCHERS – ENGAGING ALL LEARNERS

Based on her best-selling book, Drumming to the Beat of Different Marchers – Finding the Rhythm for Differentiating Learning, Debbie Silver offers her wisdom and humor to answer the question, "How do we engage students from all backgrounds and experiences?" She demonstrates how to capitalize on student strengths and elicit greater achievement gains and higher motivation among students. Dr. Silver shares her views on what she considers a non-negotiable in education – that every student deserves a reasonable chance at success. Participants leave with new ideas for creative instructional and assessment strategies as well as ideas for preparing 21st century learners.

Dr. Debbie Silver, Breakout Session

CLASSROOM MANAGEMENT THROUGH POSITIVE, PROACTIVE STRATEGIES

This session is a MUST for new teachers, teachers who are having trouble with classroom management, teachers who need to be "recharged," or administrators who want to help their staffs work towards being more student-centered. Dr. Debbie Silver offers simple, practical, helpful tips on everything from how to begin the very first day of school to how to trouble-shoot with disruptive students. Included are tips on student-centered discipline along with basic classroom routines and procedures. Teachers in the session laugh, think, and go back to their classrooms with scores of ideas on how to establish a classroom environment that facilitates learning.

Audience Options: K-12 Teachers, Teacher Support Staff, Future Teachers, Teacher Leaders, Administrators

Dr. Debbie Silver, Breakout Session

CREATING A CLASSROOM CULTURE THAT WORKS FOR YOU

This session explores emerging brain research on the neurobiology of emotions and its links to learning. Dr. Debbie Silver demonstrates applications of classroom strategies designed to foster emotional health and enhance students' ability to learn. From anti-bullying techniques to suggestions on how to improve interpersonal communication skills with and among students Dr. Silver offers helpful tips on creating a classroom environment that is safe for everyone (including the teacher). Her ideas can be integrated into any grade level or subject discipline. Audience participants join in activities that teach empathy, impulse control, and other fundamentals of emotional competence.

Hotep (Hustle University), Keynote Speaker 2

Addressing the Poverty Mindset

Schools that serve low-income, minority communities tend to face similar and pervasive issues that are a result of the Poverty Mindset; a system of beliefs, attitudes and perspectives. This session clarifies misconceptions about poverty, defines what Poverty Mindset is, why it exists, how it secretly impacts our schools and what we can do to change it...permanently!

Audience Options: K-12 Teachers, Teacher Support Staff, Future Teachers, Teacher Leaders, Administrators

Hotep (Hustle University), Breakout Session:

The New PBIS

Behavior is a Symptom that demystifies the common behavior problems exhibited in schools by first explaining WHY they occur and the teaching HOW to change them. This workshop will: share the precursors that lead to all behavior, inform on how to transform academic and behavioral outcomes, explain what leads to at-risk behaviors and why people repeat the same negative behaviors and demonstrate how relevance and relationships impact behavior. In the end, attendees will be introduced to what is being called "The New PBIS"!

Audience Options: K-12 Teachers, Teacher Support Staff, Future Teachers, Teacher Leaders, Administrators

Ms. Katherine Hunter:

Don't Turn Green! Learn How to Remain Calm Even with the Most Difficult Student in Your Class. Don't Allow Your Students to Push Your Buttons Ever Again!

The presentation allows teachers to identify areas in their classroom that need improvement, diagram out how to teach the desired behavior and practice/demonstrate how they will do this once they are back in their classroom. It's not about changing the student but helping them identify what the proper behaviors are and how to correct them using unconditional positive regard.

Audience Options: K-12 Teachers, Teacher Support Staff, Future Teachers

Can You Hear Me Now? – Getting Students to Understand Precisely What You Expect So They Can succeed.

This presentation allows teachers to learn how to refocus a student's low-level misbehavior into a positive "learner ready" behavior. Teachers will be given the opportunity to practice this technique, so they are ready to implement it in their classroom.

Audience Options: K-12 Teachers, Teacher Support Staff, Future Teachers, Teacher Leaders, Administrators

Dr. Jerri Potts, Mr. Bruce Edgerton, Ms. Monica Hendricks, & Ms. Shoni Pittman

Leveraging the Field: Family, Community, and Educators Play Together

In this session, the presenters discuss the difference between equality and equity, and how to bridge the gap for the success of all students.

Attendees will also learn how students can advocate for distressed S.O.S by paying it forward.

Audience Options: Elementary Teachers, Future Elementary Teachers, Administrators

Leveraging the Field to Promote and Enhance Global Thinking.

In this session, attendees will experience going beyond by teaching students to live life without limits and using statistics to expose students to life outside of their circumstances. In this session, attendees will also learn how to bridge the gap for the success of all students by utilizing goal setting, reflection, technology, and experiences. Attendees will be able to map out a beginning of-the-year project.

Audience Options: Elementary Teachers, Future Elementary Teachers, Administrators

Audience Options: K-12 Educators

Mrs. Adrienne Sesay

Help! My Climate's in Trouble: Using Restorative Practice Strategies to Strengthen Social Emotional Learning While Building a Positive Culture & Climate (Part I & Part II)

Through this presentation, we suggest that assuming pursuits of individual merit to be cross culturally universal limits. Instead, we recommend using restorative practices to go beyond pursuits of individualism to advance the communalism of original cultural structures through Human Rights education, thus increasing social emotional learning, while building a culturally responsive environment to fuel overall school climate and student success.

Audience Options: K-12 Educators

Mr. Roy Redd

The Unfair Advantage: The Secret to Success and World Class Performance

This presentation gives the audience the context needed to literally control the results they or their students have. This takes some brain re-wiring, literally resetting and rejuvenating them for success. The talk is done in a coaching way. Meaning, we ask socratic questions to get the audience thinking and get them to realize the ideas themselves in their own lives. The audience must see the ideas "As Lived" so the brain creates patterns that will allow them to perform after the talk.

Audience Options: Teacher Leaders and Administrators

Mr. Jason Wright

The Psychology of Feedback: The Most Powerful Tool for Individual Performance

In this session, the presenter will explain and give real life examples on how effective feedback can inspire, motivate and encourage your most difficult students. Mr. Wright will also differentiate common misconceptions educators have about feedback and how ineffective feedback can be more damaging than none at all. This session encourages discussion from attendees and promises to be packed with information that will be useful to those who work with both kids and adults.
