

Get connected to help. Call 2-1-1.

Some Bangor Area Services for those Impacted by Substance Use

Non-Medical Crisis Support Available 24/7

1-888-568-1112

Crisis services are available to come to you, anywhere that is safe. You might like to be seen at a location such as your home, your provider's office or any other safe place. We will work together to find the best meeting place for you. A service of Community Health and Counseling Services.

Bangor Area Recovery Network (BARN), 142 Center Street, Brewer 207-561-0444

Recovery community, supports and peer recovery connections.

Health Equity Alliance, 106 Pine Street, Bangor

207-990-3626

Needle exchange, HIV and Hepatitis C testing, Narcan, emergency food pantry.

Acadia Hospital, 268 Stillwater Avenue, Bangor

207-973-6100

Comprehensive substance use and mental health services hospital.

Penobscot Community Health Care

207-989-1567

Substance use, mental health and medical care services.

Wellspring, 253 Hammond Street, Bangor

207-941-1612

Substance use and mental health services.

New Horizons Detox, a Wellspring program

207-217-6521

Infinity House, a Wellspring program

207-217-6550

Housing and recovery support for pregnant and parenting moms and kids age 0 to 5.

St. Joseph CareChoice, 900 Broadway, Building # 5

207-907-3100

Outpatient medication assisted program for drug and alcohol addiction.

Eastern Maine Medical Center Primary Care

207-973-7090

Medical services including for mental health related concerns.

Discovery House, 74 Dowd Road, Bangor

207-947-6800

Drug abuse and addiction center.

Penobscot Metro, 659 Hogan Road, Bangor

207-973-0400

Drug and alcohol abuse and addiction center.

Food, Shelter, Transportation and other supports – Call 2-1-1 or visit 211maine.org

Resource guide provided by Bangor's Community Health Leadership Board, a partnership initially focused on reducing the impact of the opioid epidemic in our region. CHLB members: Eastern Maine Medical Center, St Joseph Healthcare, Penobscot Community Health Care, Eastern Maine Healthcare Systems, Penquis, Bangor Public Health, Community Health and Counseling Services, Acadia Hospital, Eastern Area Agency on Aging, City of Bangor.