

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

ANZGOG invites Abstracts of papers to be considered for oral/poster presentation at the ANZGOG Annual Scientific Meeting 2020 to be held at the Crown Promenade, Melbourne, 25th – 28th March 2020. Abstracts describing research results on all topics and areas related to gynaecological cancers are welcomed. Please note that ANZGOG does not accept Case Studies for the ASM.

Members wishing to present the same work at both ANZGOG and ASCO are free to do so without compromising ASCO's Prior Presentation Policy.

With submission of your Abstract you will assign the rights for it to be published on the ANZGOG member website. The abstract submitted for review will be the final version for print. Please ensure your abstracts adhere to the guidelines stipulated.

All presenters must register to attend the conference. Acceptance of abstracts into the program is contingent upon receipt of the registration fee in full.

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION: Thursday, 30th January 2020 (no extension will be given)

ORAL PRESENTATION:

Applicants whose abstracts are chosen for oral presentation are expected to present in person on one of the conference days Thursday 26th March, Friday 27th March or Saturday 28th March at the Crown Promenade, Melbourne. The successful applicant will be advised of the date upon acceptance and full registration and is subject to finalisation of the program by the Program Committee.

POSTER PRESENTATION:

Abstracts chosen for poster presentation will be displayed for the duration of the ASM. Set up of poster presentation is to take place on the afternoon of Wednesday, 25th March with dismantling to occur in the afternoon of Friday, 27th March.

The selection committee may determine that an Abstract submitted is for oral presentation, poster presentation or does not meet the selection criteria.

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

- Abstracts may be for any type of research in gynaecological oncology. Preclinical studies may be better suited to the Pure Science session, however will still be considered in the main program under General Submissions.
- Case studies will not be accepted
- Full name of author/s should be included. Name of presenter of the Abstract at the conference should be noted.
- All abstracts must be submitted online.
- The body of the Abstract is limited to 600 words (including headings).
- Abstracts should contain the following content sections: Background/Introduction; Objectives; Methods (including type of data collected); Results and Conclusions.
- All Abstracts are to be complete at time of final submission, including all data results, if any.
- There is no limit on the number of Abstracts an author may submit.

IMPORTANT DATES

Abstract Submission Deadline	30 th January 2020
Oral Presentation at the ASM 2020	26 th – 28 th March
Poster Presentation at the ASM 2020	25 th – 26 th March

SUBMIT ONLINE

Any Questions?

Any question regarding your abstracts, please contact ANZGOG Conference Secretariat on 07 3368 2422 or email anzgog@yrd.com.au