

Come and play the FLOW GAME

CANBERRA | 15 SEPTEMBER 2019

What question are you holding that you want to explore?

The Flow Game is a unique opportunity to seek clarity on questions that are important to us, in a safe, supportive environment. Its purpose is to ground, strengthen and bring clarity and flow to you, your life, leadership and actions.

There are a little more than 200 Flow Game hosts around the world, and a group of us will be in Canberra in September for an Art of Hosting training. We wanted to take this opportunity to offer Flow Games to the Canberra community, so you can experience this powerful practice for yourselves.

You will have the chance to explore a question that has meaning to you in your life or work right now, in a game with other players. To participate, we ask that you have a clear intention or question to explore with old and new friends. During the game, we'll jointly reflect and share knowledge related to your question or intention. We will play multiple games in parallel, each in small groups of 3-6.

Join us ..... and play the Flow Game with us! Places are limited so please register your attendance early.

Mel Geltch, David Newell, Steve Ryman, Jane Geltch, Fiona Malcolm and Nick Takavadii

Contribution

We will accept voluntary contributions of between $20 and $50 per person. The minimum contribution will cover the cost of venue hire and refreshments. Any extra will honour the Flow Hosts, who are offering their time and energy generously. If you are unable to contribute anything extra, you are still very welcome.

We invite a shared community lunch. Coffee, tea and water will be available, and we ask for you to bring something to share, as a snack, or for a shared lunch afterwards.

"If you ever get a chance to play the Flow Game, clear your schedule and take advantage of the opportunity by doing whatever it takes to make it happen. It's one of those rare chances to stop for a moment, be present and learn what you need really need to know."
