Lindisfarne College

Founded in 1953
A school for boys aged 11-18
Traditional values, life-long friendships and a high-quality education

We have a clear vision ... that the young men of Lindisfarne will be men of good character who will go on to lead lives of success and significance.

Mr Ken MacLeod, Rector

Deliberate character-based education

We seek to inspire and instil within each Lindisfarne boy, the aspiration to become the best he can be through active engagement in our four cornerstones of learning.
