

9.30am	Arrival and Coffee
9.50am	Welcome to the SRNCN 2017 Conference Carole Edwards (SRNCN Chair)
10.00am	Key Note Speech – The evolution of dance; why jig from foot to foot when you can dance? #WhyWeDoResearch Claire Whitehouse & Michael Keeling Emerge team Lothian — how it's done locally – Q&A
11.00am	'Hot topics' - Feedback and updates since the last conference CRN Practical Course -Kay Walker IACRN Conference in Florida - Jean Bruce Round table feedback 2015 conference - Juliet MacArthur
11.30am	Coffee
12noon	Round table sessions - you can attend 2 sessions. (In your registration please select 3 sessions that you would like to attend, you will be allocated to 2 sessions) - <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Role development—how do we ensure adequate skill mix?2. How do we offer psychological support to participants?3. Recruitment & retention of staff – what are the issues?4. Revalidation experiences - what can we learn from personal experiences?5. HRA approvals—how have they affected Scotland?6. Do Research passports need to be complicated?7. How do we get PPI going in our local areas?8. Trial coordinators – undervalued role in research team?9. Induction, learning from best practice?10. Electronic records—are we making progress?
1.00pm	Lunch

Scottish Research Nurse & Coordinators Network

Celebrating Clinical Research Nursing in Scotland

#SRNCN17

www.srncn.scot.nhs.uk

Annual Conference, 17th March 2017, Apex Dundee City Quay Hotel

2.00pm

Presentations from Scottish CRNs & Coordinators - Challenges in Research

1. Jessica Taylor: Achieving 'Linchpin' Effectiveness in Clinical Research Nursing Practices
2. Kathryn Cain : Phase 2 Drug Trials, Orphan Drugs, Ultra Rare Diseases – The Challenge of Success
3. Rachel O'Brien: Promoting Emergency Medicine Research

2.45pm

Patient and Public Involvement - How does it impact research?

Allison Worth, Patient & Public Involvement Advisor
PPI Volunteers – Olivia Fulton & Sue Polson
Gordon Hill - Social media

3.30pm

Scopes & Standards for Clinical Research Nursing (Video link) -

Margaret McCabe, President IACRN

3.50pm

Presentation from winner of Scottish Research Nurse of the Year 2015 - 'What winning the award means to me' - Judy Coyle

4.00pm

Scottish Research Nurse of the Year 2016/17 Award

The award recognises and rewards excellence in the research nurse profession and hopes to increase the wider understanding of clinical research nursing.

4.15pm

Feedback from round table sessions and closing remarks

Email: srncn@yahoo.com

Find us on

