

Let There Be Life

A CONFERENCE TO INSPIRE, EDUCATE, AND EMBOLDEN ACTION

Sunday, April 22, 2018

9 am – 3:30 pm

at

My Father's House
Moodus, Connecticut

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Melissa Ohden

Melissa advocates for life as a national speaker and author, and has addressed the U.S. Congress. A miraculous survivor of a five-day saline abortion attempt, her inspirational life story is a compelling witness to God's extraordinary plan for her life. She is the founder of the Abortion Survivors Network, a board member for the Vitae Foundation, and a former speaker for Feminists for Life.

HIGHLIGHTED SPEAKERS:

Judith Mascolo M.D., Family Practice Medicine.

How our changing culture impacts quality of life and health; The truth about national trends on family, relationships, STDs, abortion, and euthanasia.

Peter Wolfgang Esq., Executive Director, Family Institute of Connecticut.

Defending Life, Liberty and Family in Connecticut: What you can do to help.

Full-Day program includes speakers, Holy Mass, refreshments and lunch, plus access to vendors, bookstore, and tours of the Connecticut mobile ultrasound van!

Tickets: $40 adults, $30 students; Family of 4 or more: $120.
