Monday 27th July 2015

One Day Workshop 10am to 5pm approx.

Creating a Scene

Start to make this lovely three section wall hanging with a seaside theme. Learn my special techniques of flat & textured piecing along with applique and embroidery to make this attractive wall hanging.

Students attending one day only would be able to start and make one section and finish the remaining ones after the class or may prefer to select a smaller project using similar techniques.

ALL Workshops £40 each

Price includes morning coffee & biscuits on arrival, buffet Lunch and afternoon tea & cake and not forgetting Sally's expert tuition.

Sally Holman is a qualified teacher and has been teaching patchwork for 27 years, as well as writing articles and designing patterns for magazines. She has written several books and has a range of patterns and kits too. Sally likes to emphasise learning new skills and techniques and creates a fun & friendly environment in which to learn.

Tuesday 28th July 2015

One Day Workshop 10am to 5pm approx

3 D Crazy Christmas Tree

Start to make this 3D tiered Christmas tree decoration that makes a lovely table centre and alternative to a traditional small tree.

Make crazy patchwork sections to create your tree or if you want to speed up the process you can make each direction from just fabric and embellish these. This is a really fun project.

Wednesday 29th July 2015

One Day Workshop 10am to 5pm approx.

Owl or Crazy Duck Door Stop

Start to make this popular project using the techniques of folded patchwork and applique. With a little forward preparation (instructions supplied on requirements list) you should be able to make most of this project on the day.

The Duck takes slightly longer than the owl.
