22 MAY 2019

INTELLICA HIRES NEW IMPLEMENTATION MANAGER

Intellica, the independent provider of data management and business change services, today announced the appointment of Shelagh Hamilton Jones as Implementation Manager.

Brendan Doherty, Executive Director at Intellica commented: "Meeting client demands is one thing, at Intellica we look to forecast potential challenges down the line so that we can continue to build our capabilities and put ourselves in the best position to support evolving needs. This is only accentuated with the growing focus on data quality. We have a clear plan for long-term growth in place and continued investment in high-calibre people is integral to its success. Shelagh has an obvious passion for client delivery and, this, alongside her long-standing experience in delivering large scale transformation projects, makes her a great enhancement to our existing team of experts."

Hamilton Jones commented: "Data exercises aren't easy but if managed effectively, they needn't be as onerous as organisations might think. Intellica are a progressive team with a focus on delivering innovative, but practical, solutions of the highest standard. I am excited to have this opportunity to work alongside them."

Shelagh has worked in the financial services and life and pensions sectors for over 20 years - previous roles include Head of Software Delivery and Quality Assurance at MyCSP and Operations Service Delivery Manager at Equiniti.

The appointment follows Intellica announcing Paul Bingham as its first Chair last month and forms part of the business's long-term growth plans.
