Quantum Advisory strengthens Flex proposition with Richard Beddall appointment

Quantum Advisory, the leading pensions, benefits and actuarial firm, have announced the appointment of Richard Beddall as Senior Benefits Consultant. Richard's role will be to develop and promote Quantum's flexible benefits proposition, QChoice.

Phil Farrell, Partner at Quantum Advisory, commented: "We are very pleased to have Richard joining the team. We are seeing a strong and growing demand from SMEs for an employee benefits proposition that enables them to offer their employees flexibility and choice and we are committed to helping them achieve this in an affordable way through our flexible benefits proposition, QChoice. Richard, with his vast experience in the Flex and employee benefits arena, will add valuable resource to our existing team and help our clients to continually drive engagement amongst their employees, stand out from their peers and support their business performance."

Richard Beddall commented: "It was the team's clear drive, commitment and belief in QChoice that first attracted me to Quantum. This is an exciting time for the business and I very much look forward to working with such an enthusiastic team and helping more companies maximise the benefits of Flex for their organisation."

Richard joins Quantum Advisory with 12 years' experience in the Flex and employee benefits industry. Prior to this, he spent three years as Business Project Manager for National Express Group and has held a range of Flex roles with Benefex, Edenred and Lloyds TSB Group. Richard holds the Princes2 Accreditation in Project Management.
