

Bio for David E. Lossing

David Lossing resident of the City of Linden, is a current member of the Genesee County Conservation District and has been serving since 2017. He is running for a four-year term in March 2018 for the Conservation District.

Lossing believes in public service and giving back to the community. He served the City of Linden for eighteen years as both a member of the Linden City Council for six years and the last twelve years as Mayor. During that time, he built strong relationships between the local units of government in Genesee County and the school districts. He worked on regional land use planning and recreational activities in the region.

He is currently serving as the chair of the Shiawassee River Water Trail Coalition that was created in 2017. The Coalition's goal is to have the Shiawassee River designated as National Water Trail by the U.S. Department of the Interior. He also serves on the Fenton Community Fund and the Board of Trustees of the Community Foundation of Greater Flint.

David and his wife, Suzanne, have been residents of the City of Linden since 1996 and have been married for nearly twenty-eight years.
