

Candice C. Mushatt Biography

Candice Mushatt is a lifelong resident of Flint, MI. She is the product of a working-class family with a rich history of tradition, honor and integrity.

Growing up in Flint, Candice attended Manley Elementary School and Flint Southwestern Academy High School. As a product of the Flint Community Schools, Candice's vision embodies the best of our community. Candice is currently extending her education, majoring in communications.

Candice's working career began at the age of 15, working with youth in the community as a camp counselor for the Flint schools. She would later go on to become a writer and instructor for the Sylvester Broome Center (Amistad Program); she taught youth the basics of tap dancing and ballet, she also taught acting for beginners.

Candice has volunteered on multiple political campaigns; served as the constituent advocate for a member of Flint City Council for over 3 years. She has gone to Washington D.C. to lobby on behalf of the residents of Flint during the water crisis and has been newly energized to serve her community through environmental education

Candice currently serves as the Constituent Service Director for the 34th District. In addition to her role in the House of Representatives, she can be heard every Saturday morning on WFLT 1420am.