It is unconscionable how the State Bar OCDC and they strawman client waste so much money going after all the wrong people to suppress and silence. They went after you because they don't like you or what you do for a living. You are a threat to their egos; but, look what it has cost!

This letter notes and explains the recent Texas Supreme Court case of Lopez v. Royston that eviscerates the Commission's big argument that the fee agreement should be construed against me. It was the lynchpin for their Appellant Response. Over 140 + letters of support have been filed, along with 26 Amicus briefs, and they can be reviewed at www.ocdc-revealed.com. Hope to see you Wednesday, September 16, 2015 at the 1910 Court House, on the third floor, 300 Fannin, 10:30 am. Our Justices are William J. Boyce, J. Brett Busby, and Marc C. Brown. Thanks for your support and help

Best wishes for the weekend.
