

A good lawyer and a great person.

I met Bob Bennett in 1973...as he was attending law school at the same time as my husband. We have been friends through the years and I have known Bob professionally as well as on a personal level. I know Bob's family, his parents and sibling. Bob Bennett is one of the most trustworthy and sincere people that I know. His morals and ethics are of the highest standards and he is someone I would trust in any situation. Bob has done much good in the Houston community and our world and his involvement would be an asset to any situation.
