Subject: Review of Robert S. Bennett:

Message: I have known Robert for almost as long as I have practiced law, which is 36 years. I have always observed him to be a man of great integrity and diligence. He has impressed me, through professional and personal association, as a industrious, highly qualified and extremely ethical lawyer who fully represents his clients within the bounds of the law. Because of these qualities and the significant value that Robert brings to the legal profession and our community in general, I find it aploable that he has been treated so caustically by our State Bar. Any reprehensible conduct is that which is connected with the State Bar's prosecution of Robert under the circumstances in question and his resulting disbarment.
