

Members of the Conservation Committee met at the SELC offices in January. Note all of the reusable water bottles on the table! Sarah Francisco the director of the Charlottesville office of the SELC briefed us on the proposed Atlantic pipeline. The committee also reviewed possible recipients of AGC's $1,000 for conservation donations. And we agreed to learn more about carbon offsets.

