OPPORTUNITY and COMMITMENT

The Moscow Ballet's annual production of "Great Russian Nutcracker" is a wonderful opportunity for students to take part in a quality production that is seen by thousands of people each holiday season. Being selected as a cast member is an honor and a privilege. Children's cast will work with professional directors and choreographers, wear exquisite costumes, and appear on a lavish set at the beautiful 4,200 seats Rosemont Theatre on Sunday, December 2nd, 2018. There are two performances at 1pm and 5pm and 68 dancers are needed for each performance.

This is also a commitment and a responsibility that requires a high level of dedication from both the performer and the performer's parents/guardian. Before auditioning, potential cast members must consider all other activities in which they may be involved and be willing to put their commitment to the production above and beyond those activities that may conflict with the rehearsal and performance requirements associated with "Great Russian Nutcracker." Please bear in mind while making the decision to audition that being a cast member is not just another extracurricular activity. Dozens of people; performers, directors, choreographer as well as the performance itself, are negatively affected if all cast members are not demonstrating the same level of commitment.

"GREAT RUSSIAN NUTCRACKER"

Featuring spectacular sets and beautifully costumed Russian dancers, Moscow Ballet's Great Russian Nutcracker is an annual treat for the whole family. Whimsical and imaginative storytelling blends with the richness of Russian classical dance to make the Great Russian Nutcracker a unique performance not to be missed! Choreographer Anatoly Emelianov has been praised by critics for its unique setting of Act II in the "Land of Peace and Harmony." To convey his message of peace, Emelianov incorporates an ethereal dove that escorts Masha and the Prince to a land where there is no war or suffering".

Set against Valentin Fedorov's spectacular scenic design, with larger-than-life puppets and the backdrop of unicorns, exotic birds and animals, the Great Russian Nutcracker is a visual delight.

Children's Cast AUDITION INFORMATION

STUDENT PERFORMER AGREEMENT INFORMATION

Commitment time is September 21st – December 2nd, 2018

ATTENDANCE

- There may be no more than two absences from rehearsal. Any student missing more than three rehearsal classes will be removed from the cast.
(Extenuating circumstances, such as injury or illness should be discussed with the director).
- Choreography or directions must be learned prior to attending the first mandatory rehearsal.
- Any student missing a run-through/mandatory rehearsal will either be removed immediately from the cast or be excluded from auditions for future productions for a period of one year.
Please take into consideration once again the students load of activities outside and how it could impact the students' ability to participate. We are all interested in presenting a performance of the highest caliber, making it necessary for everyone to be consistent in their attendance.

COMMUNICATIONS

- Please provide us a current e-mail address and phone number (Please type/print very clearly); so, we can send you important and urgent information. Otherwise, we will update our calendar on the website weekly. It is parent's responsibility to follow up rehearsal schedules through PDA's website calendar. Please visit our website often at www.PlainfieldDanceAcademy.com

ROLE ANNOUNCEMENT

- Roles for specific parts will be announced by September 15th.
- Casting decisions are left entirely in the hands of the director. Every effort is given to showcase the best of all selected dancers. To present the best quality of this production dancers and their parents must be aware that some parts are larger than the others, or some have more stage time than others. As part of the performing arts education, students need to understand that these decisions are made for the good of the whole production. Parental support in these decisions is necessary and appreciated.

STAGE ETIQUETTE

- Students should exhibit good behavior at the studio and the theatre by being on time, available to their teacher and the director, and keeping quiet at backstage.
- Most of all, students must be courteous to directors, teachers, backstage personnel and fellow performers.
- Due to our performance in a professional and union theatre, there are certain theatre rules we must follow. These will be provided to all cast members so that they can be adhered to by all.

CALL

- When checking your schedule of rehearsals and performance, "Call" means the time you must arrive at the theatre.
- On the day of the performance, performers are required to check in with Security at the designated stage entrance.

MAKE-UP

- Specific directions for stage make-up will be given prior to the performance. Our prior experience with the Costume Mistress is that only the parts in ACT II can wear any make-up, however we will keep you posted if this change.

COSTUMES

- Originally designed costumes will be given by Moscow Ballet on the day of the performance and will be returned after the performance without any damage before the students are released to their parents. Eating and drinking are prohibited when costumes are on!

You are responsible to provide your own leotards, tights and ballet slippers. (specifics TBA)

VIDEOTAPING / PHOTOGRAPHING

Videotaping in the performance. Photographing the performance and performer by unauthorized person is prohibited. Moscow Ballet will provide a professional photographer to take pictures with costumes prior to performance.

PRODUCTION FEE

- A Production Fee of $250.00 has been established for Moscow Ballet's Nutcracker Children Cast. This fee must be paid in full during the Audition enrollment.

The Production Fee includes the following costs:

- Rehearsals, costume, administration, janitorial for studio space, food for the performance day, and Children's Cast t-shirt of the Moscow Ballet's 2018 Great Russian Nutcracker.
