

Maya Capital appoints Charles Pridgeon as Senior Advisor

London, 07 March 2016

Maya Capital LLP, a specialist real estate investment firm, announces the appointment of Charles Pridgeon as a Senior Advisor to provide additional expertise and guidance to Maya Capital's management team.

Charles Pridgeon (49) has over 25 years' experience in real estate markets globally. From 2010 to 2015 he was global Chief Investment Officer for Allianz Real Estate. As chairman of the Investment Committee he guided the firm's acquisition teams, investing in excess of €10 billion of equity into property assets, as well as having direct responsibility for all indirect real estate investments, research and strategy.

Prior to Allianz, Charles was Chief Executive Officer of Aareal Asset Management GmbH, where he set up European real estate funds for institutional investors and invested €2 billion into office, retail, logistics and residential property across Europe.

For the first twelve years of his career, Charles worked in Real Estate Investment Banking, becoming Managing Director and head of European advisory REIB at Bankers Trust in 1998. He started his career at Morgan Stanley in 1990.

Charles holds a M.A. (Honours) in Economics and Economic History from the University of Edinburgh.

David Pralong, Managing Partner of Maya Capital, commented:

"We are delighted to welcome Charles as a Senior Advisor to the firm enabling us to leverage his expertise and highly successful track record in real estate investment. We look forward to working together as we continue to grow our portfolio of UK regional commercial assets as well as considering expanding our strategy to continental Europe."
