

Maya Capital appoints Fredrik Elwing as Senior Advisor to support fundraising effort

London, 05 April 2018

Maya Capital LLP, a specialist real estate investment firm, announces the appointment of Fredrik Elwing as a Senior Advisor to provide his expertise and guidance to Maya Capital's management team, providing strategic advice and capital raising support.

Fredrik Elwing, coming from a capital markets background in investment banking, has focused on the real estate industry for the past 20 years. Before setting up his own advisory company, Diem Capital Advisors Ltd, in 2017, he was a Managing Director at EQT Advisory Partners UK LLP, helping EQT to identify a team to manage its first real estate fund and subsequently to raise €420mm for a debut, pan-European opportunistic fund. He also served on the Investment Committee of EQT's real estate fund.

Prior to joining EQT, he was a Managing Director and Partner of Greenhill & Co, a US investment bank, where Fredrik was responsible for the Private Capital Advisory Group in Europe, based in London. Activities included advisory work for clients in buyout, infrastructure, credit and real estate asset classes, such as EQT Partners, Balfour Beatty, Cerberus and Schroders.

Before that, Fredrik spent 10 years at Credit Suisse as Global Co-Head of The Real Estate Private Fund Group, a market leader in offering strategic capital formation advice to clients such as Blackstone, ECE, KKR, Frogmore and Rockpoint.

David Pralong, Managing Partner of Maya Capital, commented:

"We are delighted to bring on board such an experienced and accomplished professional as Fredrik. After welcoming Charles Pridgeon and Rob Reiskin in 2016 to our Advisory Board, we continue to expand our team and are supported by high-level senior advisors to help us build a stronger brand and investment house. Having recently been instrumental to the fundraising of a pan-European investment fund, Fredrik brings considerable capital raising experience, which will support our growth ambitions."
