

TAKING THE HEAD OF GOLIATH ANNOUNCE NEW DRUMMER

The Twin Cities brutal death metal band Taking The Head Of Goliath have been very busy of late, with their brand new E.P. recorded but not yet released through Rottweiler Records with also a few live appearances over the summer period. When the sudden departure of founding drummer Matthew Vansgaard, we all in the metal world were stunned and are still unsure of the reasons of his departure, but we for one will keep that book closed. Since that announcement, TTHOG dropped off the social media map and remained quiet until now.....

TTHOG have now recruited the skills of former Crimson Thorn hard-hitter Steve Reishus. The band are very excited about Matthew's replacement, as he will bring more professionalism and maturity to an already brutal force that in the still early days of the band.

The ongoing support of the band is outstanding and I'm pretty sure that this is the sign of great things to come for Taking The Head Of Goliath, because they have certainly taken theirs!!
