

ART FOR LIFE

Workshops

A series of FREE workshops focused on the therapeutic value of art

NO art experience necessary
All supplies INCLUDED

Donations* welcome
*Proceeds going to support local Mental Health initiatives

All workshops located at ARTsPLACE, home of Annapolis Region Community Arts Council | 396 St. George street, Annapolis Royal NS

Expressive Self Portraits

Sat, April 8, 2017, 10am - 4pm

Participants will create expressive self-portraits.

The art created in this workshop will be exhibited and put on sale at Round Hill Studio for the month of May under the exhibit title "Our Community".

Proceeds of the art sales will be split with the artists/mental health non-profit 50/50.

Teens and adults are encouraged to attend.

Art Masks with Teens

Sun, May 14, 2017, 2pm - 5pm

Making a mask invites the creator to explore various aspects of his/her own persona.

Besides being a therapeutic tool, mask making can be a simple pleasure on its own.

Youth ages 13 - 17 years are encouraged to attend.

Let's make Mandalas!

Tues, May 16, 2017, 7-9pm

This workshop will give you the tools to use the mandala as a path of self-discovery and artistic development.

As part of the workshop experience you will complete a beautiful and colourful mandala of your own, reflecting your inner life.

Teens and adults are encouraged to attend.

Family Art Project

Sun, May 21, 2017, 2- 4pm

Family Art Project: Let's Create our Favourite Place!

Parents and school age children are invited to participate in this playful exercise in a group setting using a variety of art mediums.

This business is made possible in part by a contribution from AIRO | Annapolis Investments in Rural Opportunity.

AIRO
Annapolis Investments in Rural Opportunity

Register: info@roundhillstudio.com

302 St. George Street, Annapolis Royal, NS

info@roundhillstudio.com / www.roundhillstudio.com / Tel (902) 955-0365

ROUND HILL
Studio