Reverend Simon Lapointe:

Reverend Simon was born into a Christian family. He converted in May 1983 and was baptized in 1984. He is married to Mrs. Esther Saint-Jean and they have four children, Godwin, Bathsheba, Nathan Simon Jr. and Nehemie. Reverend Simon is now Pastor of ELIM Church of the Nazarene.

Reverend Marie Nellie Thimoleon Leonard:

At 16 years old, I became a religious sister in a Catholic church. After a year and a half, I realized that I was not going down the right path, so I had a change of hearts. I had a friend who was a pastor in a Baptist church. He would talk to me about the word of the Lord, and at age 19, I accepted Christ as my Lord and Saviour.

I learned how to preach by listening to audio tapes after school through this small radio that we had in our home. I began to preach and before I knew it, I was being submerged in a bath of water at my baptism. That same year, I met the man that I ended up marrying in 1963. We gave birth to six children. Four children remain: Maggy, France, Franck Junior, and Carline. I am blessed to have 11 grandchildren, and 5 great grand-children.

I have worked as a missionary for as long as I can remember. By submitting myself to the strength of the Lord, and by obeying the word of the Lord, I can say, throughout all of my miracles that God truly works through my life, and through my family.

For as long as I can remember, I have wanted to serve the Lord. I have wanted to share his word and his teachings with anyone who would listen. I plan to serve the Lord until my dying day.

Reverend Emmanuel Malivert:

I was married on December 17th, 1983 to Mrs. Hermite Gourde. We have two adult children. When I arrived in Montreal, I gave my hand of association to Saint Michel Church of the Nazarene, directed by Dr. Jocelyn Severe in 1987. I then returned to Quebec Nazarene Bible Institute in 1996 and I graduated in 2004.

In 2015 the opportunity came to go back to Saint Michel Church of the Nazarene in Montreal.

Currently, I am director of Christian education where we work for the advancement of the kingdom of God. May God in his love reveal something to us.
