BETTER BUSINESS, BETTER WORLD

On September 30th and October 1st, the Soul of the Next Economy Forum (SotNE) will bring together the non–profit, government, business and education sectors to learn about local and global development issues and collaborate on business–oriented solutions. Ambrose University is hosting the forum for a third year, and the event continues to gain momentum in Calgary and beyond.

The forum provides an excellent opportunity for Ambrose Business students to connect with professionals in their field, as they discover how their passions and interests converge with those of their future peers.

“This is an exciting opportunity to have Calgary’s business leaders and potential leaders learn about social stewardship, effective community development and collaboration among different sectors,” says Black Diamond Group CEO Trevor Haynes, whose business has co-hosted the forum with Ambrose since its inception. “Together, we’ll address social and development issues locally and around the world.”

“It is when we come together with our unique expertise and creativity that we can innovate and find value both for our own organizations and the world that we live in,” adds Forum Chair, Angie Redecopp, Associate Professor of Business and Development Studies at Ambrose University. “The Forum has many voices and perspectives but one common passion – use what we have to help and empower others.”

Forum Highlights

Key events at the forum include the Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Roundtable and the Lion’s Den Social Innovation Challenge.

THE DYNAMIC TRIO

The Dynamic Trio, the most recent publication of Dr. William Stewart, is now available!

At the most hopeless and discouraging time of her life, Allison meets a group of new friends who have started studying the three primary Christian qualities of hope, faith, and love. As Allison begins to absorb the meaning, power, and truth of this “Dynamic Trio,” she is introduced to new ideas, principles, and purposes that will change her life. With the help of her new friends, she applies hope, faith, and love to her own situation and is transformed from a lost and defeated person into someone with purpose, meaning, and fulfillment.
