

Commas to the rescue!

Can you rewrite these boring, breathless sentences by replacing 'and' with commas? Don't forget to leave the last 'and' so that the sentence still makes sense.

1. Under the sofa I found an apple and twenty pence and a ticket and a brush.
2. At the zoo were lions and bears and zebras and tigers and snakes.
3. Fruit is healthy and colourful and sweet and tasty. It comes from countries like Spain India and Thailand.
4. At break he played football and catch and hide and seek and dodgeball.
5. The bike was new and red and shiny and fast. It had a bell and a basket and a light.
6. My favourite things to eat are pizza cookies chocolate ad ice cream.

Now can you show off your skills and write some sentences of your own to show you can use commas instead of 'and'.
