Who Won the Week?

Austin Chambers – Making 3 salaries? Dude has got the system figured out!

Nick Ayers – Greitens lead national consultant, who apparently set up the Gov’s dark money pipeline, is certain to be on at least one Greitens-related payroll as well, as he positions the Gov to go national.

Tishaura Jones – She successfully channeled the frustration of city liberals to become their progressive firebrand speaking truth to power and created a brand new coalition that nearly brought on an upset of epic proportions.

Lyda Krewson – As they say, close only counts in horseshoes and hand grenades. She’ll soon be making history as St. Louis’ first woman mayor.

Nicole Galloway – Her audits are consistently shining the spotlight on some sketchy practices. If I were a governor with a dark money habit, she’d make me very nervous.

Elijah Haahr – Substitute amendment to the tort reform venue bill won back the support of the caucus after nearly being in jeopardy.
