Who Won the Week?

Kirk Mathews, Todd Richardson, Bob Onder – After three years of work, the “Uber bill,” setting up a regulatory framework for ride-sharing companies, passed the Senate 31-1 and the House 144-7.

Kate Casas – The Dentons’ lobbyist can claim a lot of credit for a few big wins this week: the Uber bill making its way to the governor’s desk, and the Senate passing a school choice bill.

Shamed Dogan - With over $20,000 in campaign contributions from the Steward (World Wide Technology) family being reported, the talk about Dogan being a St. Louis County Executive candidate is getting more notice.

Elijah Haahr – The consensus is that the speaker’s race is Haahr’s to lose and supporters say his commitment numbers look good.
