FAIRFAX, VA – Ray Morrogh is proud to announce the endorsements of every Virginia State Senator from Fairfax. Senators Scott Surovell, Chap Petersen, George Barker, Dick Saslaw, Janet Howell, Jennifer Boysko, and David Marsden wholly endorse Fairfax Commonwealth's Attorney Ray Morrogh for re-election.

“I have known and practiced law with Ray Morrogh for 22 years. During that time, Ray has supported efforts to raise the misdemeanor-felony threshold, reduce the life-altering consequences of minor non-violent crimes, implemented open-file discovery, and supported the creation of diversion dockets. I hope voters will support him in June.” – Senator Scott Surovell

“Ray Morrogh is a hard-working, outstanding prosecutor, protecting our low-crime community and helping offenders turn their lives around. He is an innovative leader, working with judges and others to create veteran's and drug courts and to divert non-violent offenders with mental illness to treatment instead of jail. Widely recognized for his expertise, Ray gets chosen to prosecute cases outside Fairfax when local attorneys cannot handle them. Let's keep our phenomenal Commonwealth's Attorney, Ray Morrogh!” – Senator George Barker

“Ray Morrogh is the real deal. He's a prosecutor who is focused on protecting the community and keeping our streets safe. I trust him to do the right thing. As a local attorney and business owner, I endorse him for re-election.” – Senator Chap Petersen

Ray added the following statement, “I've spent 35 years fighting for our community and for justice as a prosecutor. I'm grateful for the support of these progressive leaders as we have all worked together to move Fairfax forward.”

Ray Morrogh has been Commonwealth's Attorney for Fairfax County since 2007. He has transformed his office with progressive reforms, such as a Veteran's Court, Mental Health Court, Drug Court, and the Diversion First initiative, all while keeping Fairfax one of the safest places to work and live in the nation. He will continue to be an effective, fair, and progressive prosecutor and remain committed to protecting all the citizens of Fairfax County.
