

FIELD DAY

Friday November 24, 2017

at Muller Station, Awatere Valley

Farming Award winner

10am: Morning tea

10.30am–3.30pm: High country land management, weed and erosion control. Steve and Mary Satterthwaite are leaders in farming the high country. Rotational grazing, pasture development and extensive weed control are key features in their economically and environmentally sustainable operation.

Guest speaker: Rob Fyfe, Chairman of Icebreaker

What to bring: Sturdy footwear and your lunch

Directions: 8705 Awatere Valley Road

Everyone welcome but bookings essential:

RSVP by November 10

peter.hamill@marlborough.govt.nz 03 520 7400

Farming award sponsored by:

