WELCOME TO LISBOA

To help the GRELL Lisboa 2019 Meeting participants we have a partner travel agent that can help all of you with your traveling arrangements and your touristic parallel programs – Wide Travel Agency. For this they selected a group of two 4 star hotels to partner with this congress with preferential prices for our congress participants and guests and also they have designed (especially for our congress participants) a number of weekend extensions around Portugal and other programs, that will make your stay with us memorable and unique. For any of these arrangements, please contact Mrs. Iris Rocha by the email: iris.rocha@widetravel.pt.

Partner Hotels in Lisbon

All our partner hotels are located in the city and with very close access to the metro (right in front of the hotel entrances or in walking distance), that will be the main connecting public transport system to the congress venue. We ask your attention to the fact that Lisbon has a VERY HIGH hotel occupancy rate in May (95% in the last 5 years), making the prices rise and all the accommodations sell out very quickly. To help you avoiding unnecessary high prices, we recommend that all the accommodation reservations (either with our partner travel agent, either by yourselves) shall be made as soon as possible. All prices below do not include the touristic Lisbon Tax, that is 2,00 € per night per person up to a maximum of 14,00 € per person, and are valid for check in on May 29th and check out on May 31st.

Weekend Extensions

In 2018 Portugal has won the World's Leading Destination 2018. Lisboa, Oporto, Algarve and Madeira are the main touristic hubs in, but the rest of the country is also amazing but still unknown.

So, our travel agent partner has numerous weekend extensions prepared for after the 3 days meeting in Lisboa. You can go to Oporto, and see this amazing and vibrant city, with all its patrimony. But you can also go to Algarve and enjoy the amazing beaches or play golf in one of the world's best golf courses. And of course you can always go to the beautiful and mild Madeira Island, known for its natural beauty and amazing food and hotels.

But Portugal is much more, and this is why our Travel Agent Partner has prepared, especially for us a collection of three weekend extension programs for only 18 people (6 in each program). From UNESCO monuments to Natural classified sites, from the original Port wine production vineyards to the only tea plantation in Europe, from sleeping in castles to whale watching, all is offered on these amazing and very exclusive weekend extensions. And all of this exclusively designed for our GRELL Lisboa 2019 guests to make your stay special and unforgettable.
