

2021 NWCLT CONFERENCE LOCATION PROPOSAL

Late April or Early May 2021

Interested in hosting the 2021 Northwest CLT Coalition Gathering? If so, please complete the following questionnaire and return to Katie Ullrich, Board Chair at katie@proudground.org by 5pm Friday December 6th.

Please note conference hosts agree to serve on the planning committee for the 2020, 2021 & 2022 conference and assist as needed in planning the conference in 2021. In return host organizations will receive 2 free registrations for the gathering AND an amazing opportunity to introduce local public officials, partners and the community to the impact of the Community Land Trust model of homeownership.

1. What is your proposed city/town location for the 2021 NWCLT Conference?

2. What is your proposed location for lodging (must accommodate a minimum of 65 people)?

Business name:
Address:
Email:
Phone number:
Person of contact:

3. Are they willing to offer discounted nonprofit or group pricing? Please provide details of the group pricing and/or attach an estimate from the venue.

4. Does this location provide meals? If not, are there walkable venues for eating that are willing to offer nonprofit or group pricing? (please give examples and contact information)

5. Does this location provide space for one large group session (60-75 people) and at least two smaller break out rooms (30ish people each)?

6. Describe the transportation options for visiting CLTs (airport and rental cars, open highways, etc.).

7. Why would your proposed city be a good choice for the 2021 NWCLT Conference?

8. How do you engage the community and homeowners in your organizational structure? For example, do you have homeowners that serve on your board of directors?