

2019 CLUB CAPTAINS

RESPONSIBILITIES:

Club Captains provide the vital link between the players and the club's executive and committee.

DUTIES:

- * To provide two way communication between the players and the committee.

- * To provide information to the players and keep them updated regarding the club's processes and decision making.

- * To assist on game days when available including setting up the ground, changing the ground and packing up at the completion of play.

- * To assist on gala days and special events including our major fundraising event and presentation by selling raffle tickets and assisting with the BBQ.

- * To be available to players and inform the executive/committee of any player's concerns or grievances.

- * To attend committee meetings when requested and provide information (Club Captains have no voting rights and are a non-member of the committee).

Note: A player who wishes to nominate for Club Captain must be turning 16 during that year, be a current player and have played with the club for a minimum of one year, unless exceptional circumstances. They must also complete a nomination form.

Applications close at 5pm on Friday 1 March. Please email through to secretary.juniorknights@gmail.com
